GOT QUESTIONS?

Nearly all small businesses will encounter legal questions such as these:

Should I form a legal entity and, if so, which kind?
What kinds of contracts do I need for my business, and what should go in them?
Are the people working for my business employees or independent contractors?
How do I protect my business's brand and other intellectual property?

GET ANSWERS!

This free workshop will provide answers to the above questions and explore some of the fundamental legal issues facing small business owners.

The Law and Your Business is presented by :
